Athletes with Disabilities Network Scholarship

In cooperation with the Athletes with Disabilities Network, the RCPD awards a total of $7,500 to undergraduate or graduate students with physical or sensory disabilities engaged in competitive athletic endeavors or those pursuing degrees in health-related professions with an emphasis on increasing athletic capabilities of people with physical or sensory disabilities. Historically there have been 4 scholarships annually each valued at $1,875 awarded during the RCPD Annual Awards Reception.

To apply, please submit a letter of application by February 21 to ADNScholarship@rcpd.msu.edu. Your letter should cover the following:

1. Basic demographics: Name, contact information, degree you seek at MSU, class level.
2. Summary of your personal situation relative to either being a person with physical or sensory disabilities engaged in competitive athletic endeavors or your academic pursuits in a health-related area that will help people with disabilities advance in competitive athletic opportunities.
3. The impact on personal athletic engagement to your life as a person with a disability or summary of how you see your academic and career aspirations positively impacting athletics for people with disabilities.
