MSU Scholarships

Welcome to MSU Scholarships

Getting Started

Michigan State University has hundreds of scholarship and fellowship opportunities available.

Opportunities can be a combination of:

- General scholarships (open to all students)
- Departmental scholarships (restricted to students within a specific major/field)
- Fellowships (open to graduate students)

Scholarships and fellowships may be recommended to you at different times throughout the year, so we suggest visiting MSU Scholarships often.

The screenshot shows the top portion of the RCPD website. At the top left is the Michigan State University logo and name. To the right is a search bar. Below this is a dark green navigation bar with the text "Resource Center for Persons with Disabilities" and a "MY PROFILE LOGIN" button with a person icon. Underneath is a horizontal menu with six items: "GET STARTED" (with sub-item "ACCOMMODATIONS"), "DISABILITY SERVICES" (with sub-item "DOCUMENTATION"), "PROGRAMS" (with sub-item "RESOURCES"), "NEWS & EVENTS" (with sub-item "ABILITY BLOG"), "ABOUT RCPD" (with sub-item "MEET OUR TEAM"), and "DONATE" (with sub-item "MAKE A GIFT"). The main banner features a photograph of trees and a building with the text "Scholarships and Awards" in large white font.

Scholarships and Awards

Opportunities Include:

- Undergraduate scholarships (open to sophomores, juniors, or seniors)
- Graduate scholarships (graduate students, including medical students)
- A Fellowship (open to students with learning disabilities)
- Study Abroad Scholarships
- Partnered Scholarships
- Internship Endowment

Applying for a Scholarship:

- Read the Application and Directions
- Pay Attention to Application Deadlines (Due Dates)
- Meet the Eligibility Criteria (GPA, Income, Class Level, etc.)
- Schedule Time to Gather & Create Materials
 - Completing the application
 - Writing a personal statement or essay
 - Obtain letters of recommendation
 - Copy of transcripts
 - Financial verification of need

Tips from Successful Scholarship Applicants:

- Be detail-oriented
- Provide a positive perspective on “self” in personal statement or essay
- Emphasize community service and leadership experience
- Do not assume people know you or know about you
- Know the interest of the foundation or donor
- Make sure how you will use the funds match the expectations of the donor or foundation

Facts:

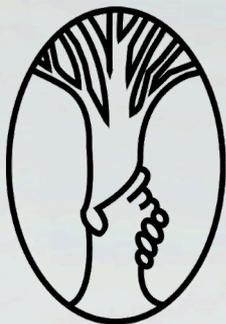

- A limited number of students apply
- Half of the applications are started, but never completed
 - Missed Deadline for Submission
 - Not have the letter of recommendation
- Half of the completed applications, are not comprehensive or have a poor perspective on “self”
